SPECS & EXTRAS

No two vehicles are exactly the same. Specs are based on averages and are merely indicative and should be viewed on the basis of probable rather than definitive. Sometimes models go through a facelift, and or a change in specs and extras without a model code change. This leads to inevitable variations of the same model. For example: The model you're looking at may not have the colour coded bumpers or the bigger rims as displayed in the advert.

UPDATES

Pre-owned vehicle stock lists are mostly updated once a day. There is a possibility that the vehicle you're interested in may already be reserved for someone or even sold.

New vehicle pricing, specs and photos are updated once a month, and mostly within a few days of any OEM changes, which will mainly happen at the beginning of a month. Vehicle pricing, specs and extras are subject to change without notification.

SIMILAR PHOTOS

Sometimes similar photos are used if actual photos are not available. Similar images may not match the vehicle exactly as they are not of the actual vehicle. Please contact the seller to view the vehicle, or request actual photos and or videos.

MILEAGE

A used vehicle's mileage may change without notice, especially in the case of demo vehicles that are still in daily use. Please confirm the exact mileage with the seller.

DELIVERY FEES EXCLUDED

Unless stated otherwise, prices exclude delivery, license, registration and documentation fees.

INSTALMENTS & FINANCE CALCULATOR

Instalments are indicative only and are based on certain assumptions and approximations that may not apply to all customers.

The finance calculator is a form of loan simulator and is not an offer by the seller, nor does it constitute financial advice in any form or manner. The finance calculator is provided to you for information and convenience purposes only. The finance calculator will not pre-qualify you for any loan programs whatsoever.

Actual instalments on loans obtained from financial institutions will vary depending on: the current prime interest rate, the financial institution's variables, the type, condition and age of the vehicle, your credit rating with the financial institution concerned, the respective initiation fees and the time period between the effective date of the loan and the first instalment payable. Please note that you should seek appropriate financial advice before concluding any loan agreements.

COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION
